

Was a safe place hardly to visible from a distance, where admiral Nelson found refuge.

Here, the shipyard where the boats were repaired and kept raised (at the present it's possible to visit it) .

On Charlotte Point the sea erosion created with time, the famous "Colonne di Ercole " that seem to rise for saving the creek where you can enjoy white beaches, palms and limpidest waters.

This location is much frequented both for the presence of the Royal Navy buildings and the excellent hotels.

Enjoy the various night-club near the port!