

This island is destination of the elite people, but only during the high season, during the rest of the year it is desert.

It's known as the "green Island" thanks to its thick vegetation that contrasts the purity of the beaches and the turquoise of the clear waters.

A real natural paradise!!.....

Moreover it's the seat of the exclusive Mill Reef Yacht Club.