

It's a fantastic marine reserve in the south-west of the Island where you can practice snorkelling among the coral reefes, limpid and uncontaminated water.