

Five Islands' bay isn't frequented a lot because of its no very clear waters and the presence of many mosquitos.

However, on the sides of Stony Horn is located a nice beach where wonderful palms shade.

In the other parts of the bay it's not allowed to get off because an important ornithological reserve is situated.