

A wide fleet of local boats offers to the tourists the possibility to go into the island through rivers and canals.

Young people have formed an association called " Indian River Guides Association " and they make you go up the river through the thick mangroves without using engines and completely respecting the environment.

Along this river they performed some scene of the movie "Pirates of the Caribbean"