

The wideness of this splendid bay gave repair to the entire french fleet. A curious building seems a boat prow: now is the house of a doctor.

Population still makes the traditional activities.

There are supermarkets where restock the pantry, restaurants and fishermen who directly sell fresh fish.

From here you can hire a scooter and so easily move through the whole island, reaching directly the beaches from the land.