

A city with around 100000 inhabitants, hot climate, lively markets and local workshops.

The San Pietro e Paolo Basilica, is notable. It was destroyed in 1843 by an earthquake but soon rebuilt and at the present its aseismic structures are visible.