

It is the main mooring point of the island, which coral reef north of Grand Col Point was the cause of an ancient shipwreck.

A small simple village offers a few services to the rented catamaran, sailing in the Grenadi nes that appreciate the wild and uncontaminated nature of this beach.