

The hotel takes the name from Cotton House and nearby there is a small airport for private aircrafts belonging to a special clientele.

Not very far there are small multicoloured houses suitable for a simpler tourism.

At the west a picturesque fish market shows lobsters and crustaceans coming from the local fishing.