

Mooring is often difficult because the sea conditions are not always favourable, but with a bit of caution it is possible to access a perfect site for snorkelling. The island is scarcely frequented by pleasure boaters and therefore appreciated by who wishes to avoid noise and confusion.

It is outside the usual cruising routes on rented catamarans in the Grenadines.