

It closes at east the Baie de Grand Case and here you have to watch out for shoals and shallow waters.

The beach is not very popular but it offers a short jetty for docking.

In the land there is Grand Case, built on the borders of the ancient salt mines.

The bright buildings and the little typical restaurants make the village more attractive than Marigot, an elegant and expensive destination.

The little airport of Espérance is far 1 km.