

The area is not always easy to dock, but the presence of buoys is extremely useful especially if the draught of the boats does not exceed 1.70-1.80 metres.

The "passe" to the south can be dangerous if the sea is rough and there is poor visibility.
Excellent docking spot for rented sailing catamarans cruising towards the Grenadines.